young european swiss | yes is the youth organisation of the New European Movement Switzerland. yes is unaffiliated to any political party, is issue-focused and counts almost 1000 members. Through educational projects, panel debates and campaigns, yes sensitises young Swiss to the relationship between Switzerland and the EU. yes believes that full EU membership for Switzerland is necessary to have a real voice in Europe and therefore urges the Swiss government and parliament to pursue an open and sustainable European policy!
